

Answers for Word Scramble

1. Vigil (page 225) watch: a purposeful surveillance to guard or observe
2. Crevice (page 104): a long narrow depression in a surface
3. Prestigious (page 149) esteemed: having an illustrious reputation; respected
4. Mechanical (page 2): mechanically - in a machinelike manner; without feeling; "he smiled mechanically"
5. Curlicue (page 16): coil: a round shape formed by a series of concentric circles (as formed by leaves or flower petals)
6. Transfixed (page 31): fascinated: having your attention fixated as though by a spell
7. Strident (page 46): Loud; shrill, piercing, high-pitched; rough-sounding
8. Recoiled (page 46): flinch: draw back, as with fear or pain
9. Kudzu (page 54): fast-growing vine from eastern Asia having tuberous starchy roots and hairy trifoliate leaves and racemes of purple flowers followed by long hairy pods containing many seeds
10. Veritable (page 71): True, factual; correctly referred to as being such
11. Clangor (page 82): make a loud resonant noise
12. Tethered (page 119): confined or restricted with or as if with a rope or chain
13. Hunkered (page 119): hunker - squat: sit on one's heels
14. Divined (page 128) being or having the nature of a god
15. Snuffled (page 137) snuff: sniff or smell inquiringly
16. Sonorous (page 155) heavy: full and loud and deep
17. Frenetic (page 170) frantic: excessively agitated; distraught with fear or other violent emotion
18. Stodgy (page 188) excessively conventional and unimaginative and hence dull
19. Thespian (page 194) actor: a theatrical performer
20. Innovation (page 216) the act of starting something for the first time; introducing something new